

PRESENT: Ursula Lande, Amanda Bond, Kara Jensen, Jeff Wells, Charles Wright, Randy Elvidge, Jessica Bahn, Erin Newton, Katie Johnson, Twilla Sleeth, Susan Isaac, Chris Babb, and Joy Hughes

Discussion:

Ms. Lande chaired the summit and the following items were discussed:

- ✓ Reviewed QEP feedback from faculty at spring assembly division meetings.
- ✓ Members reviewed colleges researched for QEP plans. Among those reviewed were:

East Georgia College	Howard College
Fayetteville College	Patrick Henry Community College
Breneau University	Thomas More College
Tarrant County College	Bladen Community College
University of South Carolina	Broward College
North Carolina State	Florida State University

- ✓ Members discussed wording and content of current goals/objectives and agreed on the following:

GOAL: Georgia Military College will provide an atmosphere where students will improve their ability to think critically.

INSTITUTIONAL OBJECTIVES:

Phase 1: Know and understand the definition of critical thinking.

Phase 2: Provide professional development opportunities in metacognition and critical thinking for faculty and staff.

Phase 3: Implement metacognition and critical thinking strategies for students.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME:

Students will be able to employ reasoning skills, analysis, inference, evaluation, deduction and induction.

- ✓ Members discussed the QEP action plan and agreed on the following:

Marketing

I.T. Desktop Wallpaper	PER 101/102	Alumni
Orientation Giveaways	Faculty Assembly	Social Media
Workshops for new faculty	Library	Slogan Contest

Professional Development

5 Skill Metacognition Webinars	QEP Speakers
Moodle Course	Teaching & Learning Center

Students

Library Tutorials	Critical Thinking across the curriculum
PER 101/102 (align with critical thinking definition and strategies)
	Master Syllabi

Taskers: Ms. Lande will create a power point presentation for the committee members to review. Ms. Lande, Kara Jensen, Charles Wright and Randy Elvidge will share the QEP presentation at fall faculty assembly, August 28th.