The Fairburn Campus celebrated
GMC's 135th Birthday
on Tuesday, October 14, 2014.

Students, faculty, and staff gathered in the Events Room to celebrate Georgia Military College's 135th Anniversary. A Proclamation from the City of Fairburn was read; memories were "revisited"; and cake was served.

Above drawing was created by Fairburn campus student, Caitlyn Bredemeier.

T-shirts celebrating GMC's 135th anniversary continue to be available for purchase at our bookstore. They are $5, and all proceeds go to help fund scholarships for Fairburn Campus students.

Veterans Day 2014

Veterans Day was observed on campus with a solemn ceremony in the quad followed by lunch for our veterans and first responders.

We said goodbye to history professor, Jeff Wells. Since 2006, he has been the cornerstone of our history department. Although he has left our campus, GMC has not lost him. He is now the new Academic Dean-Online Learning Campus.

Congratulations, Dean Wells, on your new position. You shall be missed.
