

Georgia Military College Campus Climate Survey

This is a survey of the incidence of certain types of sexual and physical experiences in relationships on campus. The questionnaire takes about 20 minutes to complete. Your participation is voluntary, and you may choose to skip questions or stop responding at any point. However, your cooperation would be greatly appreciated and would contribute to our understanding of a very important aspect of student life on this campus. We are committed to ensuring a safe, healthy, and nondiscriminatory environment for our students and your participation in this survey will help us in our work to keep all students safe.

If you agree to participate, you can be assured that your responses are completely anonymous. Your responses will be reported in terms of groups of students rather than as individual cases. You may stop your participation at any time, or choose not to answer particular questions without penalty. Some of the questions will ask about sexual and personal information. Some individuals might experience emotional discomfort while answering some of the questions. At the end of the survey, you will be given information about resources should you wish to talk with someone further.

The principal investigator of this survey is the Title IX Coordinator (Vice President of Human Resources) who can be reached at jrobbins@gmc.edu or 478-387-4908.

Demographics

Demographic information is important so that GMC can determine how well the respondents to this survey represent the larger student population on each of our campuses.

We will not report any group data for groups of fewer than five individuals that may be small enough to reveal identity. Instead, the researchers will combine the groups to eliminate any potential for identifiable demographic information.

Assessing the Number of Victims of Sexual Violence

This section asks about nonconsensual or unwanted sexual contact you may have experienced. When you are asked about whether something happened within the past year, please think about what has happened since then. The person with whom you had unwanted sexual contact could have been a stranger or someone you know, such as a family member or someone you were dating or going out with. These questions ask about five types of unwanted sexual contact:

- a. forced touching of a sexual nature (forced kissing, touching of private parts, grabbing, fondling, rubbing up against you in a sexual way, even if it is over your clothes)
- b. oral sex (someone's mouth or tongue making contact with your genitals or your mouth or tongue making contact with someone else's genitals)
- c. sexual intercourse (someone's penis being put in your vagina)
- d. anal sex (someone's penis being put in your anus)
- e. sexual penetration with a finger or object (someone putting their finger or an object like a bottle or candle in your vagina or anus)

Question 11 asks about unwanted sexual contact that involved force or threats of force against you. Force could include someone holding you down with his or her body weight, pinning your arms, hitting or kicking you, or using or threatening to use a weapon against you.

Has anyone had sexual contact with you by using physical force or threatening to physically harm you within this past year?	YES	NO
Has anyone attempted, but not succeeded, in having sexual contact with you by using or threatening to use physical force against you within this past year?	YES	NO

Question 12 asks about your experiences with unwanted sexual contact while you were unable to provide consent or stop what was happening because you were passed out, drugged, drunk, incapacitated or asleep. These situations might include times that you voluntarily consumed alcohol or drugs and times that you were given drugs without your knowledge or consent.

Within the past year, has someone had sexual contact with you when you were unable to provide consent or stop what was happening because you were passed out, drugged, drunk, incapacitated or asleep? This question asks about incidents that you are certain happened.	YES	NO
Within the past year, have you suspected that someone has had sexual contact with you when you were unable to provide consent or stop what was happening because you were passed out, drugged, drunk, incapacitated, or asleep? This question asks about events that you think (but are not certain) happened.	YES	NO

Follow-up Questions

If you answered YES to either part of question 11 or 12, please complete the following follow-up questions. If you answered NO to both parts of questions 11 and 12, please skip down to Question 22 in the last section labeled Bystander Attitudes & Behaviors.

13. If you answered YES to either part of question 11, you indicated that someone has had sexual contact with you by using physical force or threatening to physically harm you. The questions below ask about that experience.

- g. I considered intervening in the situation, but I could not safely take any action
- h. I decided not to take action

This was a survey of unwanted sexual experiences and relationship aggression on campuses around Georgia. The purpose of this survey was to answer the following questions: How often do these things happen on campus? What are the consequences and who do individuals experiencing these things tell? How do students feel about GMC's response to sexual assault? Answers to these questions are important for developing policies and prevention tools to reduce the number of these incidents in our communities and to provide better support systems for people who have experienced them. The information you have given us will help us both understand the issue of interpersonal aggression on our GMC campuses and other campuses in Georgia.

We thank you for your willingness to participate. The information you have given us will be kept anonymous, as your name is not anywhere on the questionnaire and web data is stripped of any identifying computer related information before we receive the data.

All reasonable efforts have been undertaken to minimize any such potential risks, but you should know that any form of communication over the Internet carries a minimal risk of loss of confidentiality. If other individuals (e.g., partner, roommate) have access to your computer, they might be able to view your web browsing history, including a link to this survey.
