Dr. Mike Holmes, Dean Emeritus of GMC

On June 30th, 2021, Dr. Mike Holmes, Senior Vice President, Chief Academic Officer and Dean of Faculty, retired from Georgia Military College after 14 years of faithful service. The Chairman of the GMC Board of Trustees read a proclamation and made Dr. Holmes Dean Emeritus of Georgia Military College in gratitude for his dedicated service.

“Dr. Mike Holmes has been an exceptional Senior VP and CAO for GMC. During a period of tremendous growth and expansion in programs, it was Dr. Holmes who provided the oversight and guidance to ensure we accomplished all of this with the necessary academic integrity and compliance,” Caldwell said. “His dedication to our faculty and, especially, our students, has been laudatory. Dr. Holmes is a true team player; we have been blessed to have had him as part of our team. His contributions will be a legacy here at GMC.”

Holmes taught college classes for more than a decade before he decided to join the U.S. Navy as an officer. The Oklahoma native was hired at GMC in 2007, immediately following his retirement from the Navy as a Captain with 21 years of service.

Among the most notable achievements made at GMC junior college during Holmes’ tenure includes an increase in the number of articulation agreements with four-year institutions and technical colleges (10 to 70); growth in the number of associate degree programs (9 to 28); introduction of the bachelor of applied science program, now offering five BAS programs; and maintaining a stellar accreditation record for the institution.

Thank you Dr. Mike Holmes for 14 years of leadership and commitment to Georgia Military College!

Dr. Susan Isaac, Senior Vice President, Chief Academic Officer, and Dean of Faculty, 2021

Taking over as Senior Vice President, Chief Academic Officer, and Dean of Faculty is Dr. Susan Isaac. Dr. Isaac is the first female to fill the Senior Vice President, Chief Academic Officer, and Dean of Faculty position at GMC. She will also be the first GMC faculty member to advance through the administrative ranks to fill the senior-level position.

Dr. Isaac has been with GMC for more than 20 years. She began in 2000 as a full-time English professor, teaching for eight years. Isaac has also served as Associate Academic Dean and Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs, as well as Humanities Department Chair, Division Chair of Humanities and Education, and QEP chair. Dr. Isaac returned to teaching last year at GMC as an online adjunct instructor, in addition to serving as Vice President of Institutional Research, Planning, and Effectiveness.

Over the years, Dr. Isaac has been a key contributor in a number of critical academic and administrative areas at GMC, which includes assisting with preparation for SACSCOC accreditation, establishing an institutional effectiveness system, revising the core competencies for degree programs, and writing new or revised policies.

Holmes and Isaac have worked together on numerous projects over the years at GMC. They worked together over a few months to make the transition for Isaac into the Senior Vice President, Chief Academic Officer, and Dean of Faculty position a smooth and effective one.

“I think it’s an excellent choice,” GMC Board of Trustees Chairman George Hogan Sr. said regarding the selection of Isaac to fill the senior-level position.

“Dr. Isaac’s previous varied positions at GMC and her knowledge of the campuses, faculty, and staff members will be a real asset to help get her started in this new role.”
