Defining Critical Thinking

As you complete your training as a Critical Thinking (CT) Expert, please keep GMC's definition of critical thinking in mind. As you review and curate material, remember that we are looking for the very best resources with which to train faculty, staff, and students in this definition:

 Critical Thinking: an active, self-reflective, and deliberate attempt to utilize cognitive skills to support decision making, problem solving, or mastery of concepts throughout various contexts

"Wait. What?"

What are the distinctive aspects of this definition?

What words or phrases seem most important in this definition?

Attend a minimum of one conference (options listed below)

- USG Critical Thinking Conference Athens, GA*
- International Conference on Critical Thinking Berkeley, CA*
- i2a Institute Critical Thinking Conference Louisville, KY
- Spring Academy on Critical Thinking by The Foundation for Critical Thinking – Houston, TX

Please coordinate with other conference attendees to cover as many conference presentations as possible.
